November 2019

Dear Parents,

As you may be aware, the children in Year 2 take the leading role in the Christmas play. There will be some speaking parts and some non-speaking parts. If your child would like one of the main parts, they will need to take part in an audition.

The auditions will be on Friday. Those children who would like to will need to perform the Cockerel lines, preferably by heart.

Cockerel: Cock-a doodle-doo!

Animals: Shh... you'll wake the baby.

Cockerel: Cock-a doodle... baby? What baby?

Owl: Oh, Cockerel, don't you notice anything? You really are a hoot! He arrived last night. Such a sweet little thing too.

Cockerel: Well, of course, I didn't notice him- I'm an early bird not a night bird. What's a baby doing in our stable?

Dog: I don't know but do you suppose he wants to play? (Bound towards the crib with a bone)

Sheep 1: Baa... don't be so silly. He's far too young for that.

Sheep 2: He's just a baby.

Cockerel: Hmm. I don't like babies. They wake people up. That's my job. Mmm, I see what this is all about. I'm out of a job. (Angrily) Cock-a-doodle-do!

Thank you

Mrs Richards and Mrs Tracey
